

FRISCILLA RICH spent the day doing press-agent work for the gypsy fortune teller.

BOBBY KUNZIG, Allen Reed, Jack Warren, Mary Jane Robinson, Betty Robinson, Barbara Weaver and Joseph M. Steele, 2d. They were all in the baby contest.

MRS. BARCLAY H. WARBURTON and Miss Mary B. Warburton were busy at the punch bowl.

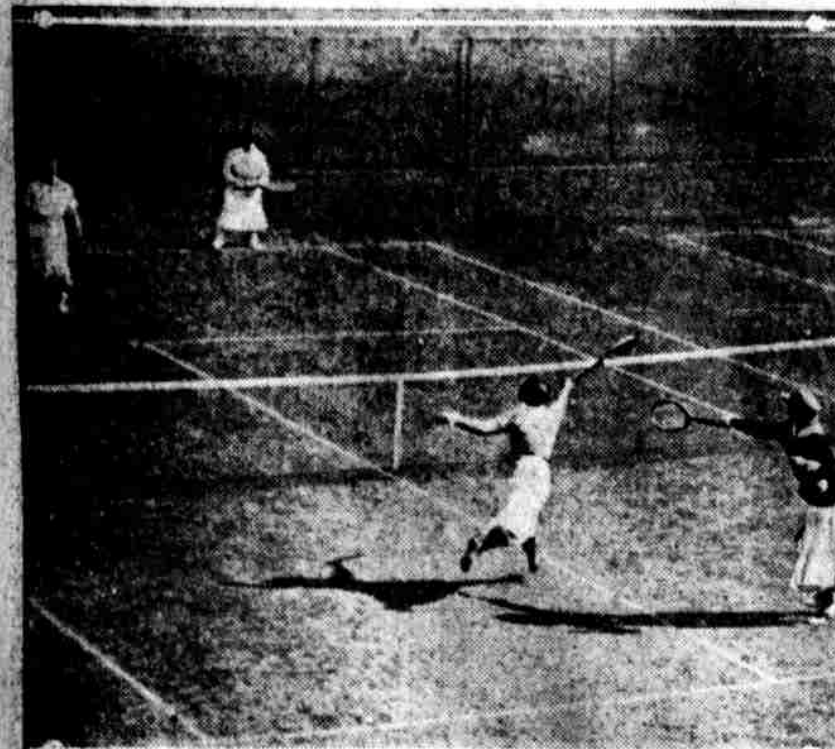

MISS PERYL GREENE, an artist, with Miss Mary Norris as the subject. Many others sat for the quick-time portraits.

AFTER she bought the balloon Betty Lewis was a happy girl.

THE BABY SHOW AND FETE HELD IN AID OF THE ARLINGTON MEMORIAL HOSPITAL, AT THE HUNTINGDON VALLEY COUNTRY CLUB YESTERDAY, WAS WELL ATTENDED AND PROVED A MOST SUCCESSFUL EVENT.

IN FORECOURT, Miss Mollie Thayer, has on a black sweater. Her partner is Miss Ann Townsend. Their opponents are (left) Mrs. Robert Herold and Mrs. H. F. Kerbaugh, both of the Belfield Club. They were snapped at the Merion Cricket Club yesterday. Miss Thayer and Miss Townsend won.

FOUR of Bryn Mawr's class presidents, who were present at the alumni exercises held yesterday. Left to right—1900, Mrs. George Gilhorn, St. Louis; 1905, Miss Helen Sturgis, New York; 1910, Mrs. Cecil K. Drinker, Boston; 1919, Miss Mary E. Tyler, Chestnut Hill.

CELEBRATING ninety-ninth birthday anniversary today. He is the Rev. S. Carr Woodhead, retired Baptist minister, of 17 North Fifty-third street.

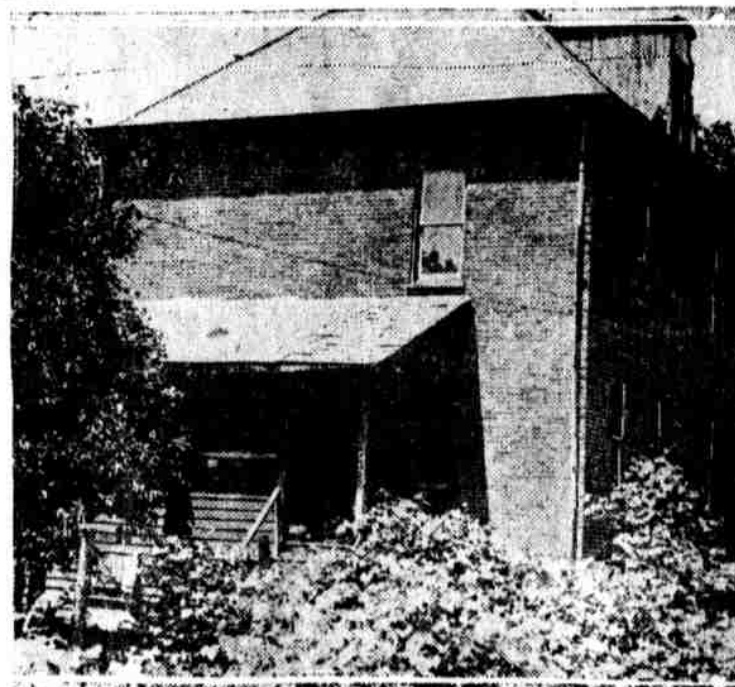

GIRLS of the Packer School, Broad and Pike streets, doing some hard work in a tug-of-war at the school grounds yesterday afternoon. It was part of the annual sports day.

A HARD BATTLE for the ball at the polo match between the Philadelphia Country Club four and the Bryn Mawr team. Riding the dark horse is Barclay McFadden, of the former team, and on the white horse A. J. Drexel Paul, of Bryn Mawr.

DURING MONDAY NIGHT Mrs. Frances Dunlop, of West Grove, near West Chester, shot Leroy Eichelberger, a neighbor, with whom she is said to have been in love, returned to her own home and killed her nine-year-old daughter Ruth and then took her own life. The house at the left is the home of Mrs. Dunlop, where she and her daughter were found dead. The woman in the group is Mrs. Eichelberger, wife of the dead man. She had been separated from her husband, but on Monday returned to live with him. This is thought to have enraged Mrs. Dunlop, who was suing her husband, Robert Dunlop, for a divorce. At the right is the Eichelberger home. Mrs. Dunlop is said to have entered through the door shown in the picture and made her way to the room right above the door, where the murder took place.

A PIECE OF STRING 31 inches long will be part of a patrolman's equipment, so that settling of disputes between mothers and street car conductors will be made easy. A new P. R. T. order forces children taller than 31 inches to pay fare.

CARRYING his single scull in which he is practicing for the Diamond Scull championships on the Thames, England. He is John Kelly, national single sculls champion.

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

THIS MACHINE stamps the serial numbers on ball-bearing rings at the rate of 4800 a day at the Hess-Bright Manufacturing Co., Front street and Erie avenue. The operator is Miss Helen Dobereng, 3345 Lee street.

MRS. SAMUEL FELTON, 3d, of Boston, snapped on the Merion courts yesterday during the women's championships.

WILLIAM T. WHITE, tennis instructor, Merion Cricket Club, teaching Miss Frances Mill how to make a back-hand stroke.

MRS. C. H. VANDERBECK, of this city, photographed at Newcastle, Ireland, where she played in the British women's championship golf tournament. She is now playing in France.

THE BEAUTY CORNER

MISS LILLIAN BONNICK, 2725 South Cleveland avenue, Philadelphia. Photographs for this feature should be submitted through the mail, addressed to the Beauty Corner, EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER.